Paul's Coworkers

Wayne Shaw
Sanctuary

At many times in his life, it seemed as though Paul was very much alone but he was also surrounded by a great number of friends and coworkers in the faith. He was also troubled by those who had hurt him or fallen away. In this study we will explore what the Bible reveals about Paul's coworkers — some of whom we know quite a bit about, while others we know just a little. Join us as we study the servants God used for His glory.

Parenting by Faith, Not Formula (Part 1)

Led by a team of parents
of college students
Room 107

In her book Child Proof, author Julie Lowe (CCEF) does not offer “six steps to raising good kids” and wisely explains that biblical parenting is “not like computer programming or car mechanics.” Rather, it is a ministry that requires wisdom and dependence on the Lord. In our two-part, 11-week class based on this book, parents of college students will take turns summarizing each chapter, sharing their own experiences, and offering questions for further discussion.

November 6 to December 11

The Life of Christ

Greg Fisher

Join us for a survey of the earthly ministry of Christ. The four gospels will be our primary sources for how Jesus viewed Himself and His mission. The gospels will also provide us with the big picture of how and where our Lord ministered and the significance of His life and work.

Parenting by Faith, Not Formula (Part 2)

Led by a team of parents
of college students
Room 107

A continuation of our important discussion on Christian parenting.

January 8 to February 19

The Gospel in the Life of Moses

Thomas Potgieter
Sanctuary

The Westminster Confession of Faith teaches that “God the great Creator of all things doth uphold, direct, dispose, and govern all creatures, actions, and things, from the greatest even to the least, by His most wise and holy providence, according to His infallible foreknowledge, and the free and immutable counsel of His own will, to the praise of the glory of His wisdom, power, justice, goodness, and mercy.”

We can often see God's providence by looking back in history or back over someone's life, like many studies done on the life of Joseph. The life of Moses is no exception regarding the display of God's providence. In this study we will begin at the transfiguration of Jesus on the mountain and walk back through the life of Moses to marvel at God's providence to save wretched sinners like us by sacrificing His own Son.

Forensic Faith

Bob Witmer
Room 107

If you have ever wished you had a better grasp of how to convey the truths of Christianity to non-Christians, or if you have wondered yourself about the basis for why you believe what you believe, then this class is for you. Using a unique DVD series by a homicide detective, this class will help us to understand why it's important to defend what we believe, and provides a unique template to help us become effective “Christian Case Makers.”
