Covenant Update

September 10, 2021

Looking forward to Promotion Sunday

The theme of this year's promotion Sunday is "The Virtues of Sunday School." Everyone is invited to join us in the Sanctuary at 9:15 a.m. as we encourage both Sunday School teachers and students through this special program. We will learn more about our Sunday School, hear our children sing, and receive an update on other children's ministries. Parents may then accompany their children to their new classes when they are dismissed or may remain for a time of prayer.

Our first grade students will then be given Bibles during the announcements before the worship service - a very special moment in the life of our church.

Welcome to Our New Members!

This Sunday we will recognize the twelve newest members of Covenant. Please check your mailbox for brief introductions and pictures of each new member (or click on the document). Each will be wearing a white carnation so that you may easily identify and welcome them. Praise the Lord for these newest additions to our church family!

COVID Update

We continue to monitor COVID numbers in our area and remain in discussion regarding prudent safety measures. As a reminder, disposable masks are available by the entryways for those who wish to use them during the worship service. Our outdoor pavilion also remains an open-air worship option. Thank you for your prayers as we seek to make wise decisions that honor the Lord and serve His people.

This Sunday Pastor Muhlfield will preach from Luke 17:20-37 and his sermon title is Already and Not Yet. He writes, "Many blessings of the kingdom of God are already ours in Christ. Yet many others will only be fulfilled when He returns in glory. In between His first and second coming, we live in tension between the "already" and the "not yet." In Luke 17, Jesus teaches us about the coming of His kingdom so that we may have divine assurance that quells our fears, as well as reverent anticipation that guides our lives for His glory."
